Mike Norris Joins Scott Insurance in Greenville

GREENVILLE, S.C., February 9, 2018 - Scott Insurance has appointed Mike Norris as a Risk Advisor in its Greenville office.

Norris joins Scott with more than 10 years of experience providing risk management property and casualty insurance advisory services. In his new role, he will work with middle-market and large commercial clients to strategically manage, mitigate and transfer risk. He specializes in insurance coverage analysis, workers' compensation advisory services, risk capital management and alternative risk financing. Prior to joining Scott, Norris served commercial clients for a global insurance broker in Greenville.

Norris received a bachelor's degree in business administration from Wichita Sate University and he maintains insurance licenses in all 50 states. He is actively involved in the South Carolina Economic Developers' Association and serves as a deacon at his church in Greer. He is also an affiliate staff member with Bridges International at Clemson University.

Mike Norris can be reached at 864-568-8669.
