Understanding the Historic $2 Trillion Stimulus Package

The United States Congress has passed a historic stimulus package to address the havoc caused by the Coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic.

The $2 trillion stimulus package is the largest economic stimulus measure in modern history. The bill is a $2 trillion combination of tax provisions and other stimulus measures, including emergency business lending. The measure promises to provide help for struggling American families and businesses, as well as health care workers on the front lines of the coronavirus outbreak.
