

Scott Performance Thinking Resources

At Scott, we strive to create and add value for businesses. We provide expert insights and technical knowledge to help solve problems, create change and improve performance in the areas of risk management and employee benefits.

As a reader of our blog, we hope this has been your experience and that the content our team provides on a regular basis helps inform and elevate your thinking surrounding these critical components of your company's culture and overall performance.

We'd like to introduce you to some additional free Performance Thinking resources from Scott that can help you improve your business.

Seminars & Webinars

Our seminars and webinars will keep you informed of cutting-edge technology and innovative approaches to risk management and employee benefits as well as offer perspectives and insights from industry experts. Our events focus on relevant topics and offer strategic solutions and practical takeaways for attendees.

Our seminars are offered in person across our footprint throughout the year. Webinars are offered on an ongoing basis with recordings available on demand.

Scott is a certified provider of continuing education credit (CE) through HRCI, NASBA and SHRM and we are proud to offer credit for many of our seminars and webinars.

Want to stay in the know? Visit our Seminars page and subscribe to receive notifications. We'll send you a friendly email when a new seminar or webinar is added to our calendar.

Risk Matters Podcast

Our Risk Matters podcast allows you to hear directly from Scott team members and clients about our Risk Performance philosophy. In addition to being available on our website, you can subscribe to the Risk Matters podcast on iTunes or Google Play.

Topics discussed in previous episodes include:

- Initiating cultural change
- The role leadership teams play in the culture of an organization
- Reporting & management of workers' compensation claims
- Reducing employee injuries
- Improving employee quality of life
- Leading a values-based organization

Through these resources, we aim to be a valuable partner for you and your organization. Contact your Scott Risk Advisor or Benefits Consultant with any questions you may have about our services or these Performance Thinking resources.
