

Scott Website Updates

Earlier this month, the Scott Insurance website was updated with a new design, updated navigation and additional resources. The following information will help you better experience our website.

About Scott

The About Us section includes a brand-new video that tells the story of our mission to serve, protect and improve the lives of our colleagues and clients. In this section, you can also find more about our company culture and values.

The Scott Team

Our updated site includes an expanded listing of our leaders at Scott, as well as comprehensive listings of our Benefits Consultants and Risk Advisors with complete profiles, many of which now include an introductory video.

For the Business

In this section, find information about all of our business services, including property and casualty, employee benefits, and surety bonds. New in this section, you can also find a listing of our specialties where we highlight the specialty areas where our team provides a unique level of expertise and technical knowledge.

For the Individual

Many of our clients aren't aware that we offer world-class individual services. In this section, learn about our custom personal insurance offering, individual health and Medicare consulting, and our expert financial planning services.

Resources

This section is one of the most expanded areas of our website, including educational and technical resources. Here is where you can find information about our events, listen to informative podcasts, or find a Scott Thought Leader to serve as a speaker, panelist or media source. Online client tools can also be found in this section.

We hope you enjoy the refreshed look of our website and that the resources and information provided is beneficial for you.
