

Bo Burns Joins Scott Insurance as a Risk Advisor in Raleigh

Scott Insurance has appointed Bo Burns as a Risk Advisor in its Raleigh office.

As a Risk Advisor, Burns will serve the risk management needs of mid-market employers in the Triangle region. Specializing in property, casualty and workers' compensation coverage analysis and education, he helps clients develop strategic solutions to proactively manage risks, build safety-focused workplace cultures and finance risk appropriately.

Prior to joining Scott, Burns worked for five years as a business consultant at ADP, earning multiple quarterly sales performance recognitions during his tenure. He also served as a global account executive at Lenovo for two years.

Burns received a bachelor's degree in psychology from Hampden-Sydney College in Virginia.

Bo Burns can be reached at 919-341-0503 or bburns@scottins.com.

View Bo Burns' Full Bio