

Employee Owned

Est. 1864

Justin MacKay Joins Scott Insurance as Benefits Consultant in Nashville

Scott Insurance has appointed Justin MacKay as a benefits consultant in its Nashville office.

In this role, MacKay's primary objective is to serve as a strategic partner to employers, providing insights and data-driven employee benefits solutions to help reduce risk, optimize benefits program structures and maximize employee engagement.

MacKay has nearly 10 years of experience in human resources and benefits administration, having previously served in multiple employer and business consulting roles, including as a major account district manager for a Fortune 500 company.

MacKay received a bachelor's degree in communication studies from Bryan College.

View Justin MacKay's Full Bio