Scott Insurance Announces New Leaders

Scott Insurance recently named new leadership of its office locations in Raleigh, North Carolina, and Knoxville, Tennessee:

- Bryan Bickley, vice President and benefits consultant, has been appointed as the branch leader of the Scott Insurance office in Raleigh. Bickley joined Scott Insurance in 2004 and has been an integral part of fostering the company's growth and awareness in Raleigh and throughout the Eastern N.C. region.
- Matt Hill, risk advisor, is now serving as the branch leader of the Scott Insurance office in Knoxville. Hill joined Scott Insurance in 2017, originally located in the company's Roanoke, Va. office. After relocating to Knoxville in 2023, he assumed the new leadership role this year.

The company also announced the appointment of five new vice presidents:

- Forrest Belcher
Benefits Consultant / Roanoke, Va.
- Kassi O'Brien
Benefits Consultant / Richmond, Va.
- Brandon Webb
Benefits Consultant / Nashville, Tenn.
- Jack Wooten
Benefits Consultant / Greensboro, N.C.

"These leaders are each making significant contributions to our company's growth, success and culture," said Hutch Mauck, President. "On behalf of our board of directors, I offer appreciation for their impact and dedication to Scott and our clients."
