

Employee Owned

Est. 1864

Scott Benefit Services Joins NAHU's Principals Council

Scott Benefit Services has accepted an invitation to join the National Association of Health Underwriters' (NAHU) Principals Council, a group of elite agencies and brokers with significant influence on legislative and regulatory issues on the federal level. The NAHU focuses on legislative issues that impact health insurance, specifically employer-sponsored coverage. Their advocacy efforts promote affordable and responsible private health insurance market solutions.