Barrett Plasman Joins Scott Insurance

Greensboro, NC, October 30, 2014 – Scott Insurance has announced the appointment of Barrett Plasman as a Benefits Consultant in its Greensboro office. Barrett will be serving his clients' needs for employee healthcare benefits, wellness, and risk management in Greensboro and surrounding areas as well as the greater Hickory area.

Barrett has 12 years of insurance industry experience helping middle market businesses design competitive and cost effective employee benefit strategies. Prior to joining Scott, he served as an Employee Benefits Consultant for Senn Dunn Insurance and Regional Vice President with Manulife Wood Logan and Travelers Life & Annuity.

Barrett is a graduate of Davidson College with a bachelor's degree in Political Science. He recently achieved the Certified Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act Professional designation through the National Association of Health Underwriters (NAHU).

Barrett may be contacted at 336-291-0382.
