Scott Benefit Services Appoints Jessie Armstrong as Account Executive

RICHMOND, Va., January 8, 2018 - Scott Benefit Services, a division of Scott Insurance, has appointed Jessie Armstrong as a Benefits Account Executive in its Richmond office. In this role, Armstrong will continue to work alongside Pim Jager, Vice President and Benefits Consultant, serving the company's Senior Living Practice Group. This group specializes in advising companies in the senior living and long-term care industry on the strategic planning related to group health and employee benefits programs, and corporate health and wellness initiatives. Armstrong will provide Senior Living clients with guidance and analysis to better manage their health program spend as well as captive program support.

Armstrong began with Scott in 2013 as a Benefits Account Analyst and transitioned into her current role as a Benefits Account Executive in 2018. She has spent over six years serving clients in the senior living and long-term care industry.

Prior to joining Scott, Armstrong worked in an emergency department leading a scribe program and working closely with emergency room physicians. She has extensive knowledge on the provider side of the healthcare business as well as a comprehensive understanding of medical diagnoses and pharmaceuticals. Armstrong graduated magna cum laude with a bachelor's degree in Chemistry from Randolph-Macon College.

Jessie Armstrong can be reached at 804-441-6827.
