Scott Insurance Names Two New Vice Presidents

RICHMOND, Va., March 7, 2019 – Scott Insurance recently appointed two new Vice Presidents for the company, Cathleen Reilly and Andrew Satterfield, both based out of the company’s Richmond office.

“Cathleen and Andrew’s individual and unique contributions to Scott are greatly valued and appreciated,” said Keith Mann, COO/CFO. “Their skilled work and leadership excellence clearly demonstrate our core values at Scott, and they are helping our organization grow and improve in many ways.”

Cathleen Reilly joined Scott Insurance in 2016 as Talent Acquisition Manager and leads the company’s recruitment strategy at all levels. After many years as a litigation attorney, Reilly transitioned to recruiting in the legal industry. In 2013, she joined a large commercial insurance company where she recruited for all departments and senior executive positions. She is a graduate of St. Joseph’s University in Philadelphia and received her J.D. from the Columbus School of Law at Catholic University in Washington, D.C.

Andrew Satterfield joined Scott in 2015 as a Health Cost Strategist. In his role, he offers expertise and actuarial analysis to guide employers in their benefits decisions and comprehensive health cost strategies. After graduating from Virginia Tech with a bachelor’s degree in finance, Satterfield joined Accenture where he worked as the manager of the Healthcare Business Unit, leading the Pricing and Risk Management team.
